DALMATIA - ŠIBENIK

If you wish to enjoy the true beauty of nature, experience the ancient cultural and historical monuments while riding a bicycle along the exceptionally indented and exciting coastline or explore the secrets of the countryside, our region is the right place for you! Two national parks, Krka and Kornati, a multitude of islands and islets, cultural and historical monuments, numerous archaeological sites, protected landscapes, exciting towns both on the coast and in the countryside will provide you with countless opportunities for an active holiday.

If you go for a ride in Šibenik's hinterland, you will discover ancient fortresses around the river Krka, archaeological sites Burnum, Bribirska Glavica and Danilo with remains dating from the prehistoric era, you will feel the spirit of the Dalmatian villages and experience the way of life as it once was.

Explore the mountain Dinara, with the highest peak in Croatia (1831 m), by taking a light walk or by cycling along the adrenaline packed bicycle trails, and on the way visit the historical towns Knin and Drniš, and a unique hydrogeological monument of nature, the spring of the river Cetina.

Cycling along the trails of the Nature Park Vransko jezero (Lake Vrana) will enable you to see the rare bird species inhabiting this area, and you can continue your journey towards the island of Murter and experience the authenticity of small fishing villages. Passing by the centuries old dry-walls and olive groves, you will reach Tribunj and Vodice, where you will find a rich gastronomic offer. The rest of the way will take you to the pearl of Dalmatia - the Renaissance town of Šibenik, which is, with its 15th century Cathedral of St James (Katedrala sv. Jakova) protected by UNESCO, and with its fortresses, considered one of the most beautiful Mediterranean towns. We should not forget Primošten and Rogoznica - small fishing villages with numerous legends and tales.

With more than 2450 km of well maintained routes in the region, you can enjoy the diverse offer - whether you want to cycle along the coast and enjoy the sea breeze, or take the countryside routes and get to know forest and mountain trails, vineyards and olive groves, or you want to experience high adrenaline mountain trails and explore the canyons of the rivers Krka or Čikola, you can find all that and more in the Šibenik-Knin region. A mild Mediterranean climate, pleasant temperatures and relatively low rainfall make this region an ideal destination for an active holiday. A large number of cycling events, various mountain bike races, themed bicycle events, XC marathons, Winter League for adults and children provide everyone, whether amateur or professional, big or small, with an opportunity to try their competitive ambitions.

ŠIBENIK

The oldest Croatian town on the Adriatic coast, first mentioned in 1066. Šibenik is one of the largest and best preserved medieval towns. The largest part of its treasures can be seen by walking the ancient streets, visiting museums and churches that hide unexpected surprises and valuable spiritual experiences. Over 20 religious monuments and 17 mansions in the old town centre.

The Cathedral of St. James (Katedrala sv. Jakova) is unique in the world – a cultural and historical pearl protected by UNESCO. Šibenik is a child friendly city with many festivals, a treasure chest of musical heritage and historical music instruments. Šibenik is the city of fortresses – the guardians of Šibenik's history – (Barone, St Michael (sv. Mihovil), St John (sv. Ivan) and St Nicholas (sv. Nikola)).

From the sea, Šibenik is guarded by St Nicholas' Fortress (Tvrđava sv. Nikole) and St Anthony's Channel (Kanal sv. Ante), with a beautiful promenade that, in addition to many cultural and natural values, offers different opportunities for sports and recreation. Danilo – Rider – one of the most significant archaeological sites in Croatia. The Hawk Centre (Sokolarski centar).

The islands of Kaprije, Žirje, Zlarin, Krapanj.

BRODARICA

A small settlement near Šibenik, and the associated island of Krapanj – the lowest inhabited island in the Adriatic Sea, known for the harvesting of sea sponges and for scuba diving.

Oil Mill St.. Lawrence - end of the 15th beginning of the 16th century.

GREBAŠTICA

A quiet place between Šibenik and Primošten, ideal for family holidays; beautiful beaches in a series of bays around which the settlement is situated the preserved 15th century defensive stone wall on the peninsula Oštrica, built for protection against Ottoman attacks, is today one of the cultural monuments protected by the Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Croatia.

the spring of drinking water "Kanela"; the cave Golubinka (Pigeons' Cave), the habitat of rock pigeons, directly connected to the sea via underground channels.

The Church of St Mary, which is unique for being a dual, functionally connected, religious monument dates back to the 15th century, and it has been entered in the register of cultural monuments of the Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Croatia.

ZLARIN

The island of corals, where they are even today manually processing corals and making jewellery. Because of the beauty of its nature and the crystal clear sea, Zlarin is sometimes called "the golden island" (insula auri).

The largest cultural monument in Zlarin is the Fraternity

Gospe od Rašelje (Bratovština Gospe od Rašelje), founded 34 years before Colombo discovered America. The baroque Church of Mary's Ascension (Crkva Uzašašća Marijina) from 1740.

Churches of St Rocco (sv. Roko) and St Simeon (sv. Šime) are today museums of Zlarin's maritime history, and three sacrament chapels. The adjoining island of Obonjan, a luxury camping party destination.

ŽIRJE

The most distant inhabited island of the Šibenik archipelago, numerous beautiful bays, a favourite spot for nautical tourists. Well maintained bicycle trails, traditional cyclefest "Dir za Žir" (Tour for Acorn).

BILICE

A small settlement in the hinterland of Šibenik, the archaeological site of a basilica from the 5th and 6th century (excavations in progress).

"Šuplja gromila" - archaeological site.

Viewpoint Pomišalj, where the local church and cemetery are located.

Lake Prokljan (Prokljansko jezero).

PRIMOŠTEN, ROGOZNICA

PRIMOŠTEN

It was a small fishing settlement in the past, situated on an islet and connected to the mainland with a bridge, thus receiving its name (the verb primostiti - to bridge).

Surrounded by seven islets, typical Mediterranean culture, beautiful beaches.

Numerous agrotourism households in the countryside, situated close to bicycle trails – Jurčinovi Dvori, Galjin Dvor, Šarićevi Dvori, Oaza Jelinjak, Bačulovi Dvori.

Famous vineyards of Primošten's indigenous grape variety Babić Bucavac.

The Church of St Rocco (sv. Roko), Primošten. Many families' votive chapels.

ROGOZNICA

A quiet and warm Mediterranean town situated in the southmost part of the region.

The lake Dragon's Eye (jezero Zmajev Oke), a geohydro-morphological phenomenon on the eastern Adriatic coast – there are many legends about this lake, one of them about the dragon Murin, according to which if two people who are in love bathe in the Dragon's Eye, they will be faithful to each other for the rest of their lives and their marriage will be blessed.

Cape Planka (rt Planka), the most outstretched part of the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea that is a climate divider between the northern and southern Adriatic.

The Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary to Heaven (Crkva Uznesenja Blažene Djevice Marije na Nebo), built in the 17th century in the honour of St Nicholas.

a museum in the deep blue sea.

Our Lady of the Chapel, the miraculous guardian of Rogoznica, whose painting is kept in the chapel on the cape Gradina. Aquarium in the open sea.

KNIN

The royal historical town on 7 rivers. The highest peak in Croatia, Dinara, at 1831 m. The second largest military fortification in Europe - the Knin fortress - a living cultural monument with museums, exhibitions and a restaurant. The charming river Krka with a dedicated picnic site, a recreational park and a hiking-bicycle trail.

A natural phenomenon, waterfall Krčić - the romantic canyon Krčić with its waterfalls and mills is where one meets with the almost untouched nature. The most important archaeological site in Croatia - Biskupija. The Church of Our Lady of the Great Croatian Baptismal Vow (Crkva Gospe Velikog Hrvatskog Krstnog Zavjeta) named after the ancient figure of St Mary in Croatia that was found in Biskupija.

The event "The Days of Zvonimir", a return to medieval times during the reign of King Zvonimir.
