Flavours of Golden Slavonia

GASTRONOMY AND OENOLOGY OF POŽEGA-SLAVONIA COUNTY

Prije svega, rakija.

Tradicija nalaže da na svakom početku treba nazdraviti, pa živjeli uz jednu čašicu rakije! Tako se u Slavoniji nazdravlja gotovo na svakom druženju, i to domaćom slavonskom rakijom. Ona je, uz slavonsko vino, obavezni dodatak svakog slavlja koje se odvija u Požeško-slavonskoj županiji. Oduvijek se zna – rakija posebno dobro grije zimi, a vjerovanje u njezinu ljekovitost u samom je temelju slavonske, kao i hrvatske tradicije. Šljivovica, viljamovka, jabukovača, trešnjevača... Rakija ujutro, rakija kao aperitiv kod svakog obroka, rakija navečer... Rakija, prije svega.

Before all else, rakija.

Tradition demands a toast at every beginning, so - let's toast with a shot of rakija, the typical fruit brandy! This is how almost every get-together is celebrated in Slavonia, with homemade Slavonian rakija. It is, along with Slavonian wine, an absolute must for any celebration in Požega-Slavonia county. It is well known - rakija will keep you especially warm in winter, and believing its medicinal powers is at the very core of both Slavonian and Croatian tradition. Plum brandy, pear brandy, apple brandy, cherry brandy... Rakija in the morning, rakija as an aperitif before every meal, rakija in the evening... Rakija, before all else.

Kako hranom otjerati neprijatelje iliti priča o vinogradarskom čevapu

Po požeškim se brdima i dolinama preljeva zlaćana boja, isto kao i u bačvama vinogradara s ovdašnjih vinogorja. Jedinstvenu Zlatnu dolinu, kako su je još Rimljani prozvali, krase brda prošarana vinogradima u kojima se i danas odvijaju razna okupljanja i slavlja. Nezaobilazni 'gost' veselih trenutaka je požeški vinogradarski čevap koji čini najfinije svinjsko i juneće meso, marinirano i nanizano na ražnju te umotano u svinjsku ili teleću potrbušnu maramicu, u društvu sa sušenom slaninom i crvenim lukom. Najsočniji je u ožujku kada se uz njega slave Grgurevo i istjerivanje Turaka s požeških brda. Naime, već više od 300 godina na taj dan vinom, hranom i pjesmom Požežani tradicionalno tjeraju neprijatelje do dugo u noć.

U tradicionalnu knjižicu recepata svake slavonske kuće svrstava se i sarma. Kombinacija okusa začinjenog domaćeg mljevenog mesa zamotanog u domaći kupus, rapsodija je za osjetila. Da ste u kraju u kojem se s kalorijama ne štedi, dokazuje i odrezak baruna Trenka, tj. odrezak telećeg ili svinjećeg mesa punjen slavonskom šunkom, kuhanim jajima i ajvarom te pirjan na crvenom luku s umakom od glijiva.

How to chase enemies away using food i. e. the story of the vineyard kebab

The Požega hills and valleys are caressed by the golden colour, as are the barrels of winemakers from these wine hills. The unique Golden valley, dubbed so by the Romans, is embellished by hills dotted with vineyards where even today various get-togethers and celebrations take place. The inevitable "guest" of the joyous moments is the Požega vineyard kebab, which consists of the best pork and beef, marinated, skewered and wrapped in caul fat, accompanied by cured bacon and red onion. It tastes best in March, when it is prepared to celebrate St. Gregory and the expulsion of the Turks from the Požega hills. Namely, for over 300 years, the inhabitants of Požega have traditionally been chasing the enemies away on that day with wine, food and singing that go on until the wee hours of the night.

A traditional recipe book of any Slavonian house must contain sarma, stuffed cabbage rolls. The mix of the taste of seasoned home-grown minced meat wrapped up in home-grown cabbage leaves is a rhapsody for the senses. Another proof that you are in a region that knows no calorie-bounds is the Baron Trenck steak, i. e. a veal or pork steak stuffed with Slavonian ham, boiled eggs and ajvar sauce, sautéed on red onions, with mushroom sauce.

Slavonsko-srijemski podolac autohtono je govedo u Hrvatskoj.

The Slavonia-Srijem podolac is an autochthonous Croatian cow breed.

Tajna je u dobroj ribi

Područje Požeško-slavonske odvijek je bilo bogato ribom, a ribarenje dio života. Za prste polizati su specijaliteti pravljeni od riječnih riba poput dimljenog šarana, prženog soma, smuđa i pastrve. Dimljena riba može biti i kratko pržena ili pečena na roštilju, a pašteta od pastrve jedan je od poznatijih namaza koji se često spremaju u Požeško-slavonskoj županiji. Putevima onih koji su ga probali, odjekuje šaran na rašljama.

The secret is good fish

Požega-Slavonia county has always been rich in fish, and fishing a part of life. Finger-licking delicacies are made from freshwater fish like smoked carp, fried catfish, pikeperch and trout. Smoked fish can also be fried or grilled, and the trout paté is one of the well known spreads often prepared in the Požega-Slavonia county. The paths of those who have tried it echo with the carp on the spit.

Šaran na rašljama

Priprema ovog božanstvenog okusa zahtijeva samo nekoliko sastojaka: šarana, sol, papar i mljevenu papriku te glavni sastojak, strpljenje. Naime, šaran se nataknut na rašlje peče na žaru oko 2 sata, pa budite sigurni da ga naručujete na vrijeme. Jednom kada je poslužen s krumpir salatom, na svo se čekanje brzo zaboravi.

Carp on the spit

To prepare this heavenly taste only few ingredients are needed: carp, salt, pepper, ground paprika and the main ingredient, patience. The carp on the spit is grilled for about two hours, so make sure you order on time. Once it is served, with a potato salad, the waiting will quickly be forgotten.

Jela na žlicu

Da svako malo treba pojesti nešto na žlicu, iskreno je vjerovanje urezano u slavonski način života. Nezaobilazno jelo slavonske ravnice je čobanac, a neizostavna posuda za kuhanje kotlić. U njemu

Slavonci rado pripremaju čobanac ili gulaš na otvorenoj vatri ili na ognjištu. Nedjeljni ili obiteljski ručak neće proći bez juhe, a neke od najpoznatijih su kokošja juha s lebernoklama, juha od buče, goveđa juha itd.

Soups and stews

Every once in a while one must eat a soup or a stew dish - that is an honest creed of the Slavonian way of life. An inevitable dish of the Slavonian plain is the "čobanac", and cauldron is an indispensable pot. It is the pot in which Slavonians love to prepare the "čobanac" or goulash on open fire. A Sunday or a family lunch is not complete without a soup, and some of the most famous ones are chicken soup with liver dumplings, pumpkin soup, beef soup etc.

Kako se slažu šaran i som iliti fiš paprikaš

Priča o fiš paprikašu je priča o bogatstvu okusa, bogatstvu sastojaka i znanja utkanog u pripremu, kao i o bogatstvu slavonskih rijeka i jezera. Barem dvije vrste ribe, najčešće som i šaran, nadopunjene su okusima luka, blage i ljute paprike i bijelog vina. Ovi sastojci čine jelo koje svakog oduševljava. Poslužuje se rado u svim situacijama – od obiteljskih i prijateljskih okupljanja u topolini doma, do raznih svečanosti u restoranima svjetske kvalitete. Ugrijat će vas u jesenske i zimske dane bolje nego išta drugo, a vaš proljetni ili ljetni izlet učiniti nezaboravnim.

How to prepare the carp and catfish i. e. fish paprika stew

The story of the fish paprika stew is one of richness of flavours, richness of ingredients and knowledge woven into its preparation, as well as of the richness of Slavonian rivers and lakes. At least two types of fish, most commonly carp and catfish, are complemented by the flavours of onion, mild and hot paprika and white wine. These ingredients make up the dish that will fascinate anyone. It is gladly served on any occasion - from family and friends get-togethers in the warmth of a home to different celebrations in top-quality restaurants. It is the best thing to warm you up in the fall and winter days, and it will make your spring or summer outing unforgettable.

Kulen naš svagdašnji

Kad stignete u Slavoniju i čujete riječ kulen, on se vjerojatno već nalazi pred vama, serviran s ostalim suhomesnatim specijalitetima ovoga podneblja. Bilo za doručak, kao predjelo za ručak i večeru ili međuobrok. Kulen je jednostavno uvijek tu negdje, baš kao pravi Slavonac koji se silno trudi da mu gosti ne odu gladni i neupoznati sa slavonskom tradicijskom kuhinjom i običajima. Be it for breakfast, as an appetizer for lunch or dinner, or a snack, kulen is simply always around, just like a true Slavonian, trying their hardest to make sure the guests don't leave hungry and unacquainted with the Slavonian traditional cuisine and customs. ## Cicvara

Slavonska velikodušnost i potreba da se ugosti, bilo prijatelja ili neznanca, preživjela je sve nedače ovoga svijeta. Zadržala se do dana današnjeg i postala sinonim za slavonski mentalitet. Spoj te gospodljubivosti, ali i jednostavnosti nekadašnjeg života seljaka, upisana je u jela poput cicvare koju čine spoj kiselog vrhnja, jaja i brašna. Spravljala se za goste na gozbama, ali i za zetove, pa se u narodu onima koji su se posvađali s punicom, rugalo rečenicom "ne's se ti najest' cicvare!".

Jednostavnost u spremanju, ali bogatstvo u okusu, otkriva se i u palenti sa zapečenom kobasicom, jelu koje je oduvijek odlično služilo za fini brzi ručak u dane popunjene obvezama života na selu, kao i trgancima sa sirom i slaninom.

Cicvara

Slavonian generosity and the need to host, whether it is a friend or a stranger, have made it through all and every trouble imaginable. They are still very much a part of life and have become a synonym for the Slavonian mentality. A combination of that hospitality and the simplicity of the traditional life of a peasant has made a mark on dishes such as cicvara, made from sour cream, eggs and flour. It was traditionally prepared for guests at feasts, as well as for son-in-laws, so popularly, those who had a row with their mother-in-law, have been mocked by being told: "You are not getting full on cicvara".

The simplicity of preparation yet the richness of flavours are also revealed in the corn meal porridge with baked sausage, a dish that has always served its purpose as a quick, tasty lunch on days filled with responsibilities of life in the country, as well as homemade pasta with cheese and bacon.

Slavonija u čaši

U vinu je istina, a još malo te istine o Požeško-slavonskoj županiji, a možda i o životu, potražiti možete u čaši slavonskog vina. Zasađene vinovom lozom, okružene i stopljene s prirodom, južne ekspozicije Papuka, Krndije i Psunja te brojni brežuljci i brdovita područja Zlatne doline ponose se vinogradima. Njihova lokacija, izloženost suncu, mikroklimatski uvjeti i tlo utječu na kvalitetu ploda, a time i kapljica koje se rado nađu na stolu Slavonaca.

Više od 30 vinarija proteže se kroz tri vinske ceste objedinjene nazivom Slavonski puti. Dopustite li da vas oni povedu u svom smjeru, naići ćete na prepoznatljivu kvalitetu slavonskih vinograda pretočenu u boce, potpisane imenima poznatih slavonskih vinarija, od kojih neki nastavljaju tradiciju nekoliko obiteljskih generacija, a neki inovativno ispisuju nove vinske retke. Odvažite se na avanturu, prošećite vinogradima, isprobajte pokoje vino i ponesite suvenir.

Their location, exposure to the sun, microclimate and soil influence the quality of the fruit, and thus the wine that is often found on Slavonian tables.

More than 30 wineries can be found along the three wine routes united by the name Slavonian paths. If you allow them to take you in their direction, you will encounter the recognizable quality of Slavonian vineyards poured into bottles, bearing the names of well-known Slavonian wineries, some of which continue the tradition of several generations, and some are innovative enough to write new wine stories. Go on an adventure, take a walk in the vineyards, try out a wine or two and take a souvenir.

Perjanica Požeško-slavonske županije

Najpoznatije vino ovog područja jest Graševina koja nastaje od istoimene sorte grožđa, a kojoj posebno gode položaji na obroncima Zlatne doline. Njoj se u čast svake godine u Kutjevu održava Festival graševine, a u istom gradu čak i glavni trg nosi naziv Trg graševine. Graševina kao perjanica Požeško-slavonske županije, rizling rajnski, pinot bijeli, pinot sivi, silvanac, chardonnay ili muškat od bijelih; merlot, zweigelt, frankovka, syrah, cabernet sauvignon i cabernet franc od crnih i poneki rosé pomoći će vam da se poput zrake zalazećeg sunca opustite po slavonskim vinogradima. Tome će se pridružiti i pjenušava vina koja su sve češće u ponudi vinarija i restorana. Jedno od poznatijih je rose pjenušavo vino koje se proizvodi od grožđa sorte pinot crni.

The crown jewel of Požega-Slavonia county

The most famous wine of this region is Graševina, made from the grape of the same name, which thrives on the slopes of the Golden valley. To honour this wine, every year, a Festival of Graševina is held in Kutjevo, and in the town of Kutjevo, the main square is even named the Square of Graševina. Graševina as the crown jewel of Požega-Slavonia county, Rhine Riesling, Pinot blanc, Pinot grigio, Sylvaner, Chardonnay or Muscat, as examples of white wines; Merlot, Zweigelt, Blaufränkisch, Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet franc as red wines, and a rosé or two - they will help you relax like a ray of sun rolling over the Slavonia vineyards. Those will be joined by bubbly wines, that are encountered more and more often in wineries and restaurants. One of the more famous ones is the rosé bubbly made from the grapes of Pinot noir. Rakija before all else, wine with everything. Cheers!

Cesta ruža i vina i brdo Klikun

Na vinskoj cesti Vinogorja Pleternica najatraktivniji je dio vinska priča dugačka 3.5 kilometra pod imenom Cesta ruža i vina, gdje uz redove vinograda rastu ruže i tako čine spoj kulture, enologije i prirodnih ljepota. Osim što svojom ljepotom krase trsove, indikator su bolesti. Pješice ili biciklom, poseban je doživljaj ovu atrakciju vidjeti u lipnju kada cvatu i ruže i graševina. Dva glavna lika ove priče su brda Klikun i Starac, s čijih se vrhova pruža pogled na pleterničke šume i ravnice. Madame Cliquot, dama udana za sina slavnog proizvodača šampanjca Cliquot-a ostala je oduševljena ovim brdima toliko da je odmah ušla u posao s vinima, pa je Klikun dobio ime prema iskrivljenom izgovoru njena prezimena.

The route of wine and roses and the hill Klikun

On the Pleternica wine route, the most attractive part is the wine story that is 3.5 kilometres long and known as the Route of roses and wine, where roses grow along the vineyards, which makes for a combination of culture, oenology and scenery. The roses, besides decorating the vines, serve as sickness indicators. Either on foot or by bike, it is a special experience to see this attraction in June when both roses and the Graševina vines are in bloom. Two main characters of this story are the hills Klikun and Starac, on top of which you can enjoy the view of the forests and plains of Pleternica. Madame Cliquot, the daughter-in-law of the famous producer of Cliquot champagne, was so fascinated by these hills that she immediately started a wine business, and thus Klikun was named after the mispronounced version of her last name.

Kutjevačke vinske priče

Vinogorje Kutjevo danas je sinonim za kvalitetna i vrhunska vina. Područje je to gdje se vinogradarstvo uz podrumarstvo njeguje još od 13. stoljeća, a za tu su tradiciju zasluzni fratri - Redovnici Cisterciti ("bijeli fratri") koji su 1232. godine osnovali opatiju Honesta de Gotho i započeli s uzgojem vinove loze te proizvodnjom vina. Na tom se mjestu danas nalazi i čuveni kutjevački podrum, najstariji vinski podrum u Hrvatskoj i JI Europi iz 1232. godine koji krije legendu o tajnim strastvenim vezama baruna Trenka i Marije Terezije. Prema kutjevačkim legendama, upravo u kutjevačkom podrumu dvorca u centru Kutjeva, oni su 1741. godine sedam dana dana proveli uživajući u ljubavnoj moći kutjevačkog vina. Posebna značajka ovoga podruma je gotovo 800 godina neprekinute vinske proizvodnje.

Kutjevo wine stories

Kutjevo vineyards are nowadays a synonym for top quality wines. This is an area where wine-growing and wine-making have been part of the tradition since the 13th century, all of it owing to the Cistercians, who in 1232 founded the abbey Honesta de Gotho and started growing vine and making wine. That is nowadays the site of the famous Kutjevo cellar, the oldest wine cellar in Croatia and South east Europe, dating back to 1232 and hiding the legend of the secret passionate ties of Baron Trenck and Maria Theresa. According to the Kutjevo legends, it was precisely in the Kutjevo cellar of the castle in the middle of Kutjevo where they, in 1741, spent seven days enjoying the love power of the Kutjevo wine. A special characteristic of this cellar is almost 800 years of continuous production of wine.
